

What problem or need does your project solve?

- The web app solves a problem for product manages to quickly get feedback on futur feature releases. With the data collected from users, the product manager can quickly validate features.
- The web app solves the project by making sure users don’t have to interact with a feature that could potentially confuse them.

Who would be a user of your website?

- The user personas would be Users already interacting with a webapp and product managers that are currently working for the web app product.

What technologies will you be using?

- React Js, Node, Express, MongoDB , Mongoose, Chart.js

Wire Frame page 1

http://www.somewebsiteservice.care

logout

Hey user, we are testing new feature and need your feed back!

☐

Wow this is great!

☐

I’m very confused.

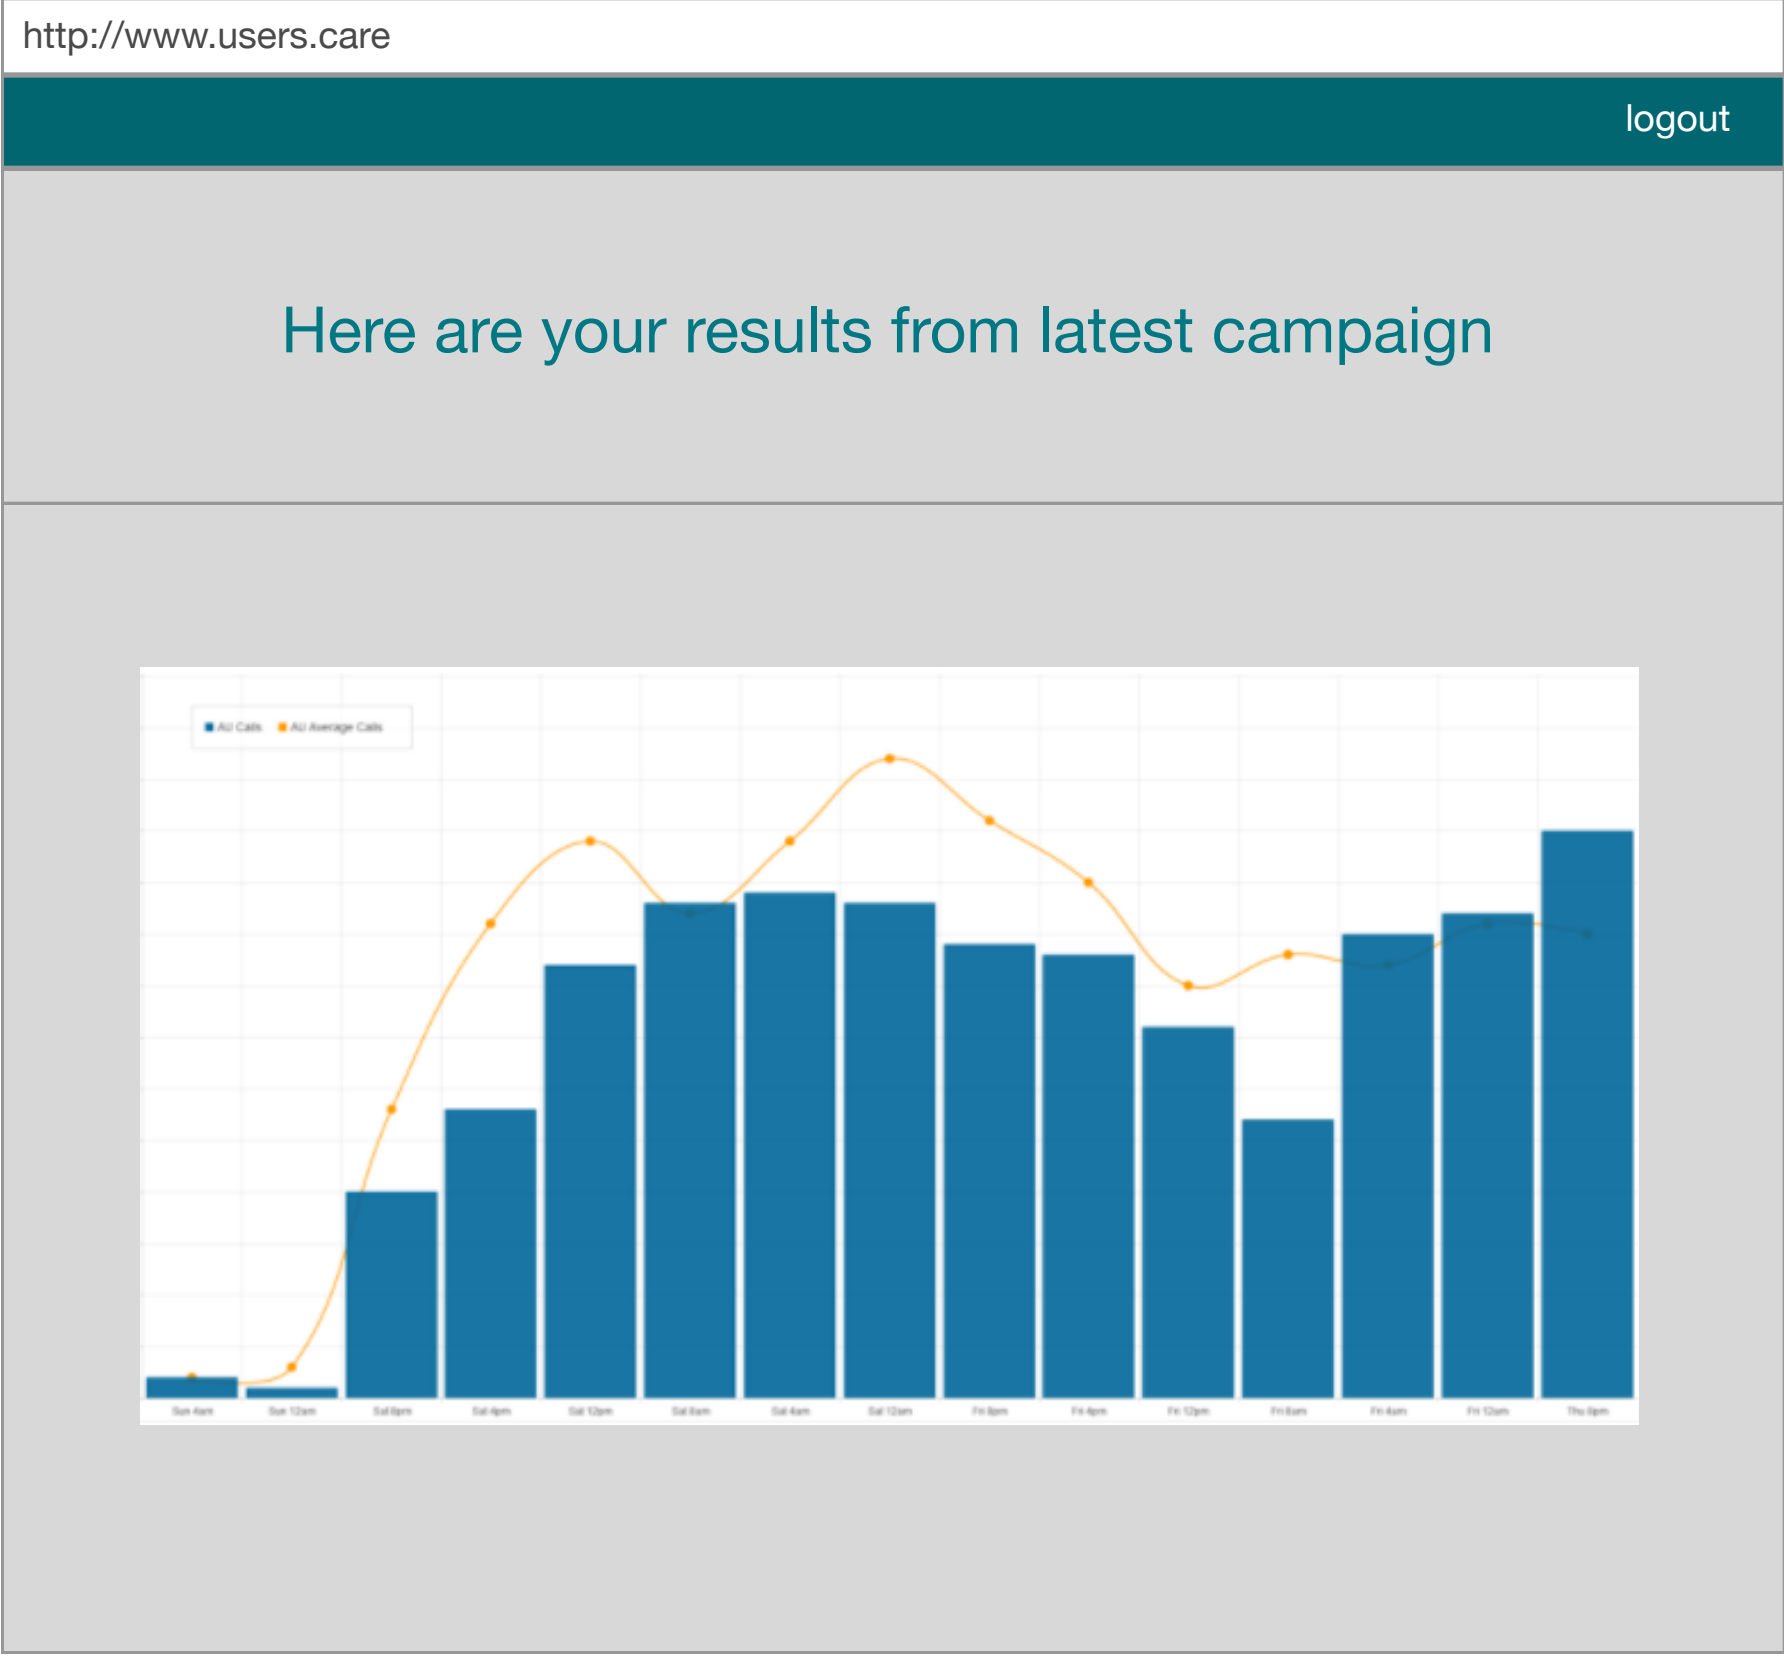

☐

This is a terrible idea.

Submit

- As a user, I see a pop-up asking be to click radio buttons

Wire Frame page 2

- As a product manager user, I see a graph get filled up in real time.